It tastes so good . . . it MUST be Heinz

Cooked—all ready to heat and serve. . . But Heinz Cooked Spaghetti is more than just a convenient ready-to-serve food. It gives you unusual taste and flavor and something good to eat.

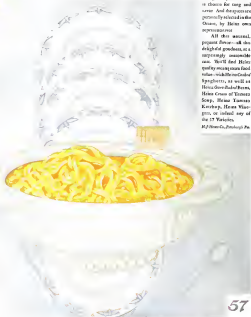

Just consider: The recipe came from a noted Italian chef—and only the very best ingredients are used . . .

Even the dry spaghetti itself—to make real white sauce—in made by Heinz. Indeed, the very way in which it is dried is worked out there.

And then—plunged, ripe, juicy tomatoes, fresh from the garden and made into a delicious sauce that is cooked right through the spaghetti! And—in it if you want's enough—a special cheese is chosen for tang and cream. And the spaghetti is generally served in the House, by Heinz own representatives.

All this means, popular flavor—all the delightful goodness, at a surprisingly reasonable cost. You'll find Heinz quality means good value—whether in Cooked Spaghetti, or as well as Heinz Green Staked Beans, Heinz Green of Tomato Soup, Heinz Tomato Ketchup, Heinz Wine, or indeed any of the 17 varieties.

WOMEN in society are all keen to the latest news. They know that to be well groomed, one must have a thoroughly good skin. So they use the famous preparation, Pond's, which makes the skin perfectly in top condition.

In America, Miss Caroline Froehlich, Jr., says, "I know as our French friends have my daily skin—with Pond's." A lovely, well-dressed Irish, Mrs. Allen J. Ryan, Jr., uses Pond's. "I have more of the skin than I can do with any other," says the old French girl, Charming Mrs. Ailla de Gramont. Pond's treated makes fully treated simple and pleasant.

In France, the first Duchess de Gramont attributes the radiant smoothness of her skin to three delightful aids. The famous Maquillage de Bligny is "the secret," "I have got the Pond's habit" is la Pomme d'Or, Mrs. Elizabeth Heyman Shadley—uses a hairbrush. "I like them in very much."

One of England's six most beautiful women, the Countess de St. Germain, tells Pond's is a "dear friend" and says "I use Pond's every day." Lady Leon Macdonald, "Pond's has done a wonderful thing for me," says the old French girl, Charming Mrs. Ailla de Gramont. Pond's treated makes fully treated simple and pleasant.

In Spain, The Duchess de Ailla, princess beauty, says, "No one has my skin as smooth as Pond's."

So, in France and America, and indeed all over the world, Pond's preparations are the favorite way to a lovely skin. This is how to use them:

First—For thorough cleansing, apply Pond's Cold Cream generously over face and neck several times a day and always at night. For so rich, so soft, so smooth skin, the secret is in the cream and in the skin. Then—wash Pond's Cleansing Cream, gently, thoroughly, gently wipe away cream and face. Repeat these two steps.

Next—Use Pond's Skin Freshener liberally over face and neck to remove oiliness, clear the pores, invigorate the skin. Last—moisturize with a thin film of Pond's Vanishing Cream for protection and powder free skin. Always—thoroughly remove with cold water, rub with soft towel.

By a unique process these grains are actually soft from huge gases . . . and puffed 8 times their normal size, 8 times their usual deliciousness.

BECAUSE they cook in just fifteen minutes in a pot, you don't have much actual nourishment there in these delicious grains of Quaker Puffed Wheat and Barley. But the reason for this is because the grains are so soft and so tender that they are actually cooked in a pot of water. Why they digest so readily
Of all prepared cereals, these are quaker, easier to digest. This is why.

FINE WORK IS EASY WITH FINE TOOLS

EXPERIENCE has taught Mother that it is not only essential to choose good food, but that "Wear-Ever" utensils make possible that even, easily controlled heat, so necessary in making fine preserves.

Furthermore, it is easy and pleasant to teach Daughter the art. The thick, hard, short aluminum, used in "Wear-Ever" distributes the heat so evenly throughout the entire handle that both the actual doing down of preserves and the teaching of others is simple.

Mother gets great satisfaction from her "Wear-Ever" sets. She, also, knows that years hence the one pass on to Daughter tried and true cooking tools still good for years of service.
